Celebrate Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) during CSA Week from February 20 - 26, 2023 with Yellow Stonehouse Farm

Westfield, Massachusetts: Yellow Stonehouse Farm, Hampden County's only USDA Certified Organic Vegetable Farm, is excited to join other CSA farmers across the country to celebrate CSA Week, a national event taking place from February 20th through February 26th to promote CSA (Community Supported Agriculture). CSA is a farm membership system that allows consumers to sign up to receive a season's worth of a farm's products (veggies, eggs, meat, flowers, grain, etc.) over a number of weeks. Along with getting to enjoy fresh, delicious, and local food, being a CSA member is an excellent way to support and get to know your local farmers. Plus, members save money by eliminating middleman who increase prices by adding their mark-up and shipping costs.

Join us in promoting CSA Week, the most popular time of the year to sign-up for CSA! When you sign up to become a CSA member, your financial support helps us prepare for the growing season. You'll enjoy high-quality vegetables, fruits, herbs and flowers while taking comfort in knowing where and how your food was grown. Don't wait to sign up, as we have limited spots available! There has never been a better time to connect with fresh local food while helping to make our local food systems and communities more resilient.

Yellow Stonehouse Farm wants to be your organic community vegetable farm – and we believe that providing customers with flexibility, convenience and affordability is one way to make it easier and more enjoyable to join. One of our flexible Farm-share membership options will work for you.
